Dr. Christopher Tyler will share scientific studies of depth perception, followed by an in-depth examination of the role of depth in painting through the eyes of Leonardo da Vinci. Bridging the visual sciences and arts with his neuroscience expertise and art interpretation interests, Dr. Tyler will enrich both understanding and appreciation of human vision.